

We have approached the year when the world will learn about the ethnic German genocide. Yes, I have faith in all that has been accomplished and what will be accomplished in the near future. I've had many contacts asking about the registration form for the conference. There's been a little trouble with getting the form on the web site, www.annsfilms.com, so it can be filled out on screen and paid for through Pay pal or credit/debit card. It's being taken care of as fast as possible so keep checking the site so you can get your registration in.

The premiere of The Forgotten Genocide was well received and has had many inquiries. The HEC TV station has worked with me very well and continues in planning for upcoming programming of the film series being created now.

The two speakers to complete the list are Wilhelmine Schnickles coming from Germany to speak on the political standing of the German government preserving the expulsion/genocide in their country. Julius Loisch will be speaking on the history of the Carpathian Region, how the expulsion happened to them and what has happened since.

The most educational part of the past two years is the magnitude of the genocide. It doesn't matter if the people are from Hungary or Romania, it doesn't matter if the people are Sudentendeutsche or Donauschwaben, and it doesn't matter if the people fled or went straight into a camp everyone suffered. There is no way I'm able to completely understand what happened without researching all the groups through all the years, before and after what happened from 1944-1948. I'm hoping through this conference all of you will be able to come together and find some answers to old questions, strength in the numbers that are still very large and understand a little bit more about the very, very big story that needs to be told.

Please pass onto your organizations, friends, relatives and anyone else you can think of that this conference is taking place and everyone is welcome. There is no one who is not welcome to attend.

Until next time, Ann Morrison

THE CONFERENCE IS COMING TO ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

APRIL 28th and APRIL 29th, 2011 at The Viking Conference Center and
Holiday Inn Southwest
10709 WATSON ROAD, ST. LOUIS, MO 63127
1-800-682-6338